Forward-Looking Statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements, which can be identified by the use of words such as “estimate,” “project,” “believe,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “plan,” “seek,” “expect” and words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to: statements of our goals, intentions and expectations; statements regarding our business plans, prospects, growth and operating strategies; statements regarding the quality of our loan and investment portfolios; and estimates of our risks and future costs and benefits.

These forward-looking statements are based on current beliefs and expectations of our management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements: general economic conditions, either nationally or in our market areas, that are worse than expected; our ability to access cost-effective funding; competition among depository and other financial institutions; inflation and changes in the interest rate environment that reduce our margins or reduce the fair value of financial instruments; the rate of delinquencies and amounts of loans charged-off; fluctuations in real estate values and both residential and commercial real estate market conditions; adverse changes in the securities markets; changes in laws or government regulations or policies affecting financial institutions, including changes in regulatory fees and capital requirements; our ability to enter new markets successfully and capitalize on growth opportunities; our ability to capitalize on strategic opportunities; our ability to successfully introduce new products and services, enter new markets; our ability to successfully integrate into our operations any assets, liabilities, customers, systems and management personnel we may acquire and our ability to realize related revenue synergies and cost savings within expected time frames, and any goodwill charges related thereto; our ability to retain our existing customers; changes in consumer spending, borrowing and savings habits; changes in accounting policies and practices, as may be adopted by the bank regulatory agencies and the Financial Accounting Standards Board; changes in our organization, compensation and benefit plans; changes in the quality or composition of our loan or investment portfolios; a breach in security of our information systems, including the occurrence of a cyber incident or a deficiency in cyber security; technological changes that may be more difficult or expensive than expected; the failure to attract and retain skilled people; and the fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government and its agencies.

Because of these and other uncertainties, our actual future results may be materially different from the results indicated by these forward-looking statements.
